THEME SHEET - L.EIC

Theme	Internet Control
	The Internet is today's most important communication and information infrastructure. News regularly emerge about attempts (more or less surreptitious, successful or unsuccessful) to control it, in the sense of exercising power over the citizen.
Problems	How does such control appear to be being attempted by economic power (companies)?	How does such control appear to be being attempted by political power (governments)?
Learning outcomes	At the end of the work, regarding the topic and problem studied, students should be able to: • define the main underlying terms • present a clear, illustrated summary with clarifying examples of the underlying concepts • if possible, identify examples of the use of the underlying concepts in academic life (teaching and research) at FEUP (or U.Porto) • if possible, fit the underlying concepts into one or more of the UN Sustainable Development Goals[*] • present the group's vision, formed after the work has been carried out
Biblio	Mere examples: • Centrality and power. The struggle over the techno-political configuration of the Internet and the global digital order. Julia Pohle, Daniel Voelsen, 2022 • Wikipedia: Internet censorship
